Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the act of copying, including or directly quoting from, the work of another without adequate acknowledgement. All work submitted by students for assessment purposes is accepted on the understanding that it is their own work and written in their own words except where explicitly referenced using the correct format. For example, you must NOT copy information, ideas, portions of text, data, figures, designs, CAD drawings, computer programs, etc. from anywhere without giving a reference to the source. Sources can include websites, other students' work, books, journal articles, reports, etc. Self-plagiarism or auto-plagiarism is where a student re-uses work previously submitted to another course within the University of in another Institution.

You must ensure that you have read the University Regulations relating to plagiarism, which can be found on the University of Galway website: https://www.universityofgalway.ie/plagiarism/

I have read and understood the University Code of Practice on plagiarism and confirm that the content of this document is my own work and has not been plagiarised.
